“Aioria”

This is a drawing I made of my dog Aioria as the character that inspired me to name him. Based on “Aiolia of Leo” from the Saint Seiya anime, which has always been one of my favorite fictional characters. My dog is cooler, though.

Methods

This was simpler than the other drawings I made like the Mustang. It had much less detail and the shading was much more basic. I used basically only the marker tool for detailing, coloring, shading and finishing.
